

Freedom Friday Activities. Choose 3 or 4 activities to do and post a photo on seesaw.

Freedom maths Activities	Freedom literacy activities	Freedom art activities	Freedom outdoor activities	Freedom family activities	Freedom stem activities	Just for fun.
Cooking	Read a book to a pet	Find some leaves in your garden and use a crayon to do leaf rubbings.	Ride your bike or scooter and film you doing your best trick	Play board games like scrabble	Lego - be creative.	Choose something to watch on ABC Me Education.
Find all the clocks in your house and practise reading the time.	Record yourself reading a book and post it on Seesaw	Make your own kite and try to fly it.	Walk to the beach with a grown up and count the jellyfish you see.	Have a dance off with your family members	Collect some empty cardboard boxes and make a very big tower.	Make some popcorn with a grownup in a pot and watch it explode.
Colour by number	Read a story and draw a picture to show something you read.	Make creatures out of pipe cleaners and play dough	Go on a treasure hunt. Choose a letter of the alphabet and see how many things you can find.	Play musical statues	Use several icy-pole sticks, 3 rubber bands, a bottle lid and glue. See if you can make a catapult.	Find some paint and make a mural.
Listen to times table songs online or counting pattern songs	Read a story and write a review for the book.	Go to Arts for kids Hub and learn to draw something new.	Use some chalk to make an obstacle course on your footpath then challenge your family to do it.	Get out into the garden and look for bugs or insects.	Have a go at building a balloon powered Lego car.	Video chat with a friend or make a phone call.
Order objects from smallest to largest	Write your spelling words with a paintbrush and water on some concrete or the fence.	Watch an episode of Mr Maker and try to copy one of his art activities.	Find a ball and practise target throwing against a wall.	Cook a three course dinner together.	Create a diorama about the sun and the moon.	Play with dress-ups.
Make patterns with toys, pencils etc	Act out your favorite story.	Take some photos of your garden and make a collage.	Go to Seaford wetlands and see how many different birds you can find.	Watch a movie.	Make a cubby house.	Do some mindful coloring.